

Rule 1

The Executive Director to the Metropolitan Beer Permit Board may issue a temporary license to sell beer to any person or entity who meets the following requirements:

- A. Said applicant shall state under oath that the said individual or entity owns a business enterprise which will involve the sale of beer; and
- B. Said applicant has completed under oath an application for a beer permit; and
- C. The information included on said form does not conflict with any of the requirements for the issuance of a beer permit; and
- D. All required documents for the issuance of a beer permit shall have been submitted to the Beer Board office.

Upon completion of these requirements, and there being no items of discussion before the Beer Board, the Executive Director may issue a temporary license to that person or entity to allow the sale of beer until the application for a beer permit has been heard by the Beer Permit Board. This license shall expire on the date of the next meeting of the Beer Permit Board in which such person's beer permit application can be heard, but not to exceed 30 days, whichever is first.

ADOPTED: This 10th day of August, 2017

This rule supersedes and replaces the Rule 1 that was adopted on April 10, 1978.
