

Review of Complaints Open For More Than Six Months

September 07, 2021

Case Number	Complaint Type	Complaint Date	Disposition	Reason(s) for Case Remaining Open After Six-Months	Investigator Assigned
D2021-002	Director Initiated	02/10/2021	Open Investigation	The investigative portion of this case is resolved. I will be preparing the final report when time allows. Delays in this case are due to our division being extremely short staffed. In addition, my responsibilities have been expanded during this time making it extremely difficult to work on anything that doesn't require immediate attention.	AD Chris Clausi
D2021-001	Director Initiated	01/27/2021	Open Investigation	NA	Investigator Vernon Johnson
D2020-006	Director Initiated	12/03/2020	Open Investigation	The investigative portion of this case is complete. The final report will be prepared as time allows. Delays in this case are due to our division being extremely short staffed. In addition, my responsibilities have been expanded during this time making it extremely difficult to work on anything that doesn't require immediate attention.	AD Chris Clausi

Case Number	Complaint Type	Complaint Date	Disposition	Reason(s) for Case Remaining Open After Six-Months	Investigator Assigned
D2020-005	Director Initiated	08/19/2020	Open Investigation	This case has been submitted for PRR. There has been a delay in preparing PRR's for three significant reasons. First, in preparing to present our first PRR, the board and the staff needed to work through the process procedurally since it was our first, which also included several new members to the Board. Second, after the first and second PRR's were presented to MNPd, there were concerns from both the MNPd and the Board with what would be done next and how the process would move forward in the future. Finally, while trying to get all the concerns and procedures resolved, the Executive Director was attempting to compile the PRR's without a legal advisor. The legal advisor is tasked with preparing the PRR's for the ED to review, make any additions, and present.	AD Chris Clausi

D2020-003	Director Initiated	05/21/2020	Open Investigation	This case was investigated first by the TBI and records weren't released from the DA's office until 06/01/2021. The final report is complete and only lacks final review before it will be ready for a PRR.	AD Chris Clausi
