ABOUT THE COMMISSION

The Metropolitan Historic Zoning Commission (MHZC) is an architectural review board which reviews applications for work on properties that are within a Historic Overlay and makes recommendations to Metro Council on designation of Historic Overlays. Its nine volunteer members, appointed by the mayor and confirmed by Metro Council, include representatives from zoning districts, the Metropolitan Historic Zoning Commission, the Metropolitan Historical Commission; architect(s), and other citizens of Davidson County.

Agendas and Staff Reports can be viewed online at <http://www.nashville.gov/Historical-Commission/About/Historic-Zoning-Commission/Meeting-Information> the Friday before the meeting.

Meetings may be viewed live on Channel 3 or at an alternative time on Metro's YouTube channel.

COMMUNICATING WITH THE COMMISSION

SPECIAL NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Out of an abundance of caution, and pursuant to recommendations from federal, state and local health agencies regarding avoiding group gatherings due to the COVID-19 Coronavirus the May 20 agenda will be via teleconference. To protect the health and safety of our community, we strongly encourage all members of the public to view this item online. Metro Historic Zoning Commission meetings are shown live on the Metro Nashville Network, Comcast channel 3, and streamed online live. In addition, meeting recordings are posted on YouTube, usually on the day after the meeting. We strongly encourage the public to view this meeting remotely.

Because the MHZC is a quasi-judicial body members are not permitted to discuss specific cases outside of a public hearing.

AFTER THE MEETING

Decisions: The decision on all cases before the Commission and minutes from the prior month, if ratified by the Commission, will be posted online the Friday after the meeting. All permits for work authorized by the MHZC must be obtained within 2 years of the date of the board's approval.

Appeal: Pursuant to the provisions of § 2.68.030 of the Metropolitan Code of Laws, the MHZC's decisions may be appealed to the Chancery Court of Davidson County or the Circuit Court of Davidson County via a statutory writ of certiorari. If you choose to appeal, you are advised to seek your own independent legal counsel to ensure that your appeal is filed in a timely manner and that all procedural requirements are met. You should also seek independent legal advice regarding the applicability of the writ of certiorari to the specific decision of the Historic Zoning Commission.

For information on how virtual public meetings:

<https://www.nashville.gov/Government/Virtual-Board-and-Commission-Meetings.aspx>

Each case follows this format:

- a. Staff will make a presentation about each project up for consideration and provide an analysis on how it does or does not meet the design guidelines.
- b. The applicant will have the opportunity to present (up to ten minutes) and answer questions of the Commission. The applicant may reserve two minutes of the ten to rebut public comment.
- c. The public will have two minutes each to comment on the application. Someone representing an organization may have five minutes if written notice is received no later than the day prior to the meeting day. Please state your name and address for the record before making your comments. Please be sure to direct all comments to the microphone so that they are a part of the official record.
- d. The applicant has the option of responding to public comments, once all have been made, and if the full ten minutes was not used.
- e. After all public comments, the Chair will close the “public hearing” which means there is no more opportunity for public or applicant comments, unless the Commission invites either back.
- f. The Commission will make a decision which could be to approve, disapprove, or approve with conditions. The applicant may also request that a decision be postponed.
- g. Appeals to decisions of the MHZC may be taken to a court of competent jurisdiction as provided for by law.
- h. If the project is approved or approved with conditions, the applicant will receive a permit. If the project is disapproved, the applicant will receive a notice of decision. Any project may be revised and resubmitted for a new review. The exact same project disapproved may not be resubmitted for review.
- i. A building permit may be necessary for the proposed project. Preservation Permits are not a substitute to a building permit. Contact Metro Department of Codes Administration, Howard School Building, 800 2nd Avenue South. (615) 862-6500 (615) 862-6514 fax.
