

Directions to the Metropolitan Nashville Historic Courthouse & City Hall

LOCATION: The Office of the Metropolitan Council & the Vice Mayor, the David Scobey Council Chamber, and the Metro Clerk's Office and associated committee rooms are all located on the second floor of the Historic Metro Courthouse & City Hall at One Public Square, Nashville, TN 37201.

There are two ADA-compliant entrances to the Historic Courthouse & City Hall building, one from Public Square Park and the other from the sidewalk on James Robertson Parkway.

When entering from Public Square Park, you are on the first floor. After clearing security, the second floor can be accessed using stairs to the left (Council Office) and right (Council Chamber, Metro Clerk's Office) or elevators directly behind the security station. When entering from James Robertson Parkway, you are on the ground level, after clearing security, stairs are straight ahead, and elevators are around the corner to your left.

ARRIVING BY TRANSIT: The WeGo Central Bus Terminal at 400 Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Blvd. is one block from Public Square Park. Walk down MLK Jr. Blvd toward 3rd Avenue. Cross 3rd Avenue at the signalized crosswalk at Deadrick Street or James Robertson Parkway.

BIKING/BIKESHARE: There is a B-Cycle docking station at the corner of 3rd Ave & Union St. Bike racks for personal bicycles are available on the east side of the Courthouse/City Hall.

DRIVING/PARKING: The Metro Courthouse/Public Square Garage is UNDER the Courthouse/City Hall at 101 James Robertson Parkway.

Once parked, follow signage to the nearest stairwell or elevator to the top (P) level, exiting out into Public Square Park & crossing the plaza to enter the Courthouse/City Hall.

Parking is free for Council committee meeting and Council meeting attendees. Parking vouchers are available on various tables on the second floor of the Courthouse/City Hall. When exiting the garage, present your voucher along with your ticket to the parking attendant.

RIDESHARE/DROP-OFF/PICK-UP: There is a large, U-shaped pull-in area above the parking garage entrance off James Robertson Parkway on the east side of the Courthouse/City Hall; enter and exit at the traffic light.

Requests for ADA accommodation should be directed to the Metro Clerk at 615-862-6770.
